Wentzville Christian Church Privacy Policy

This privacy policy applies to the websites (wentzvillecc.org) and mobile application for Wentzville Christian Church. By using our site, you consent to our Privacy Policy as detailed below.

We take your privacy seriously. At the same time, we use certain data to help us serve you better and carry out effective ministry. To that end, we're going to answer some questions you might have about what information we collect and what we do with it.

What information do we collect?

We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when registering for an account on our websites or app, filling out a Connection Card, giving to the church, registering for an event, signing up for a newsletter, or any time you enter information into our site.

The personal information that we collect depends on the context of your interactions with us, the choices you make, and the features you use. The personal information we collect may include the following:

Contact and Demographic Info. We collect your first and last name, email address, postal address, phone number, date of birth, grade, gender, marital status, and associated family members. Personal photos can also be uploaded to your account.

Credentials. We collect passwords and similar security information used for authentication and account access.

Payment Data. We collect data necessary to process your payment if you donate online or pay for an event, such as credit card number and the security code or a bank account for ACH transactions. We do not store your full credit card or bank account numbers in our internal systems. If you choose to save your payment method or set up recurring contributions, this information is securely stored by our third-party payment processor, in compliance with industry standards.

We automatically collect certain information when you visit, use or navigate our websites or app. This information does not reveal your specific identity (like your name or contact information) but may include device and usage information, such as your IP address, browser and device characteristics, operating system, language preferences, referring URLs, device name, country, location, information about how and when you use our websites or apps, and other technical information. This information is primarily needed to maintain the security and operation of our websites and for our internal analytics and reporting purposes.

How do we use this information?

To fulfill the purpose of your visit and follow up after you correspond with us.
To send emails regarding your account, donation, registration, etc.
To send periodic email newsletters, text messages, or push notifications you've opted to receive.
To develop content ideas for future messages, life group resources, social media, etc.
To comply with legal obligations, such as tax documentation for charitable contributions.

Will your information be sold to anyone?
We have never sold and will never sell your personal information to third parties. We also do not share your information with third parties for marketing or promotional purposes.

No mobile information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing/promotional purposes. All other categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

What about cookies?
Cookies are small data files that our sites store on your computer through your web browser (if you allow it) that enable our systems to recognize your browser and remember certain information. We use cookies to:

Understand and save your preferences based on previous or current site activity, which enables us to provide you with improved services.
Keep you logged in each time you visit.
Help process online giving.
To aggregate data about site usage in order to offer better site experiences and tools in the future. We may also use trusted third-party services that track this information on our behalf.

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies through your browser. If you disable cookies, some of our features will not function properly.
